

TABLES AND TICKETS

All levels receive the following:

- ~ Recognition as a member of the Bird Ball Honorary Committee on invitation, printed program, Field Notes e-magazine, Annual Report, donor wall, and Museum website
- ~ Hors d'oeuvres reception, hosted bar, valet parking

GREAT BLUE HERON TABLE ~ $25,000 (Tax deductible portion is $22,000)

- ~ Leadership Circle: Charles Darwin membership
- ~ Behind-the-scenes tour and private catered reception for eight with Museum president and CEO, Judy Gradwohl
- ~ Table champagne
- ~ Reserved VIP table for 10
- ~ 25 Museum guest passes

ELEGANT TERN TABLE ~ $10,000 (Tax deductible portion is $7,750)

- ~ Leadership Circle: Charles Darwin membership
- ~ Behind-the-scenes tour and private catered reception for four with Museum president and CEO, Judy Gradwohl
- ~ Table champagne
- ~ Reserved VIP table for 10
- ~ Ten Museum guest passes

WESTERN TANANGER TABLE ~$5,000 (Tax deductible portion is $3,350)

- ~ Leadership Circle: John Muir membership
- ~ Reserved VIP table for 10
- ~ Ten Museum guest passes

PEREGRINE FALCON* COUPLE TICKETS ~ $2,500 (Tax deductible portion is $1,900)

- ~ Leadership Circle: John Audubon membership
- ~ Two reserved seats
- ~ Ten Museum guest passes

ANNA'S HUMMINGBIRD INDIVIDUAL TICKET ~ $350 (Tax deductible portion is $190)

- ~ One reserved seat in the atrium
- ~ Two Museum guest passes

Fun Fact! A Field Museum study which included analysis of the DNA results and nest-watching revealed that, almost to a bird, falcons remain loyal to their partners. Out of 126 baby birds, only two were being raised by a bird other than their biological parent, and even that was a special case: The male bird had partnered with the already-pregnant female after his own mate had died.*